

RICH DAD JUNIOR SCHOOL

SCHOOL RULES AND REGULATIONS

The rules and regulations are a key guideline to successful and harmonious living in the school life while at Rich Dad Junior School

True and genuine education is based on sharpening of character concurrently with learning academic subjects.

Educationists therefore guide learners to respect and follow Rich Dad Junior School rules and regulations so as to build honesty, helpfulness, co-operation, efficiency and good manners leading to good characters building.

Rich Dad Junior School family therefore runs on the following at its heart.

LANGUAGE AND COMMUNICATION

1A LANGUAGE: Rich Dad Junior School curriculum caters for five languages taught practically during their respective lessons, but the medium of communication throughout the school and after those other four languages is strictly English only.

1B VULGAR LANGUAGE, LOOSE TALK, GOSSIPING AND ARROGANCE

These are strictly not allowed at school and involving oneself in one of them is punishable.

1C POLITE LANGUAGE

This is the only language needed at Rich Dad Junior School. Any impolite language detected will be highly discouraged and the subject (learner) will be called to the disciplinary committee for affirmative action of change.

2A ATTENDANCE

Every learner at Rich Dad Junior School is expected to be regular in attending the lessons daily and following the opening and closing routines of the school. This includes all the lessons and other school activities as guided/directed by the officer's-in-charge (OCs)

2B ABSENTISM

There is zero tolerance to absenteeism, a killer factor of performance in class. Any pupil who falls victim to this with false excuse will face a suitable recovery measure and if it persists, he /she will be advised to look for another school.

Please Note: Genuine absenteeism follows a clear flow of communication from the home of the child to school.

2C SCHOOL GATHERINGS

- I.) All prayer sessions of the pupil's respective religion are mandatory/ compulsory. They include all the five slat (prayer) of Muslims daily, juma prayer for Muslims every Friday and spiritual alert Hour (SAH) for all denominations and religions every Friday from midday to 1:00 p.m.
- II.) Assembles, parades and roll calls must be attended by all pupils who are called upon by any authorized persons unless specific and defined permission is given.

3A FOOD AND WATER FOR DRINKING

The school provides both of these essentials/ necessities. They are of very high and recommendable quality in line with different nationalities (people) in school. Refusal to eat or drink water at school will call for investigation and if found intentional, a warning / punishment will be given.

3B All meals served at school suit everyone due to the wide range of foodstuffs prepared, so they are compulsory to every pupil.

4A TIMEAND ROUTINE

Pupils must arrive at school in the time stated for arrival in the routine

4B A child who arrives beyond/ past the routine time stated will be transported back home and asked to come back to school with the parent the following day.

4C All Learners must be in class room at the time a lesson commences.

4D The maximum time of late response to any call for any activity at school is five (5 minutes). Any pupil who comes later than that is given a serious caution/ even punishment.

ACADEMICS

5A Handwriting. Our handwriting format is looking at every letter of a word you write and it can easily be changed into a geometrical circle (circular-print hand writing). All our learners are trained and helped to write in the same way. Any pupil who obstinately refutes this faces the academic and disciplinary committees for correction and guide measures.

5B Work and cleanliness

All our pupils shall always present a change of their hand writing work from good to better until best or more is achieved. They must therefore display clean, complete, correct and tidy work in a clean book to the teacher in charge.

5C Reading and Revision.

A pupil at rich Dad is a reader and therefore a leader of others in information and the way conclusions and approaches are designed for life and success.

All pupils must therefore attend all reading lessons and public speeches / address sessions and study tours for the confidence we desire. Any pupils shunning such a development will be talked to in the presence of their parents. Showing a care free attitude to change might lead to dismissal.

5D Examinations

All pupils must do examinations and tests prepared by the school to check on their potential and progress for recommendations and promotions and they must be in full charge of keeping their past papers for future reference and revision in their box files.

6 DISCIPLINE AND CONDUCT

This is a key for all because progress moves hand in hand with discipline. We therefore must enforce it among our learners at Rich Dad Junior School – Entebbe Road

Indiscipline and activities that are intolerable include;

6A Indecency

6B Using abusive language

6C Fighting of any form

6D Nicknaming fellow pupils

6E Stealing of any nature

6F Making noise unnecessarily

6G Refusal to greet others and elders

6H Disrespecting elders, teachers and democratically chosen prefects and class captains

6I Stubbornness of any form

6J Playing bad games

6K Involving in trade of any kind at school

6L Escaping from school

7 SECURITY AND UNIFORMITY

Our uniform as designed with a security reflector for traffic security at night, no pupils is allowed to add anything to our known design. Any pupils found wearing a mismatching design (s) of our uniform shall be driven back home with caution.

8A CONCLUSION

Breaching any of the regulations stated will call for a hearing/ disciplinary action/ punishment for changes, and if the vice persist, the pupil may be suspended or even expelled from school. This will depend on the weight and times of error. Only acts of indecency will call for an indefinite suspension or expulsion.